I think your list seems reasonable.

I'm in Berlin next week but will be available for a check in on chloroform/TQB on Feb 19 between 9-11 AM EST if you want to chat.

I'm going to send the attached essays and CV to letter writers today. I am sending the letter writers a clean version (with all essays in one document) but see the tracked changed version for you. I had very few comments. I think they came out well!

If you have time please look over the attached lists and Bibliography to see if we should include any other documents as Major Scientific Contributions or Publications. I need to finalize those lists before I finalize the essays. I would like to finalize and add all documents by the end of next week (except for the letters).

Thank you! I appreciate all you do for me!
